JAPAN PLANS TO CHOP UP COMMERCE, NOW BELIEF

Desire For No Limits In Other Than Capital Ships Explained

U. S. IS AROUSED

Press Views With Alarm Intent Of Nippon To Be Sea Raider

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, Nov. 21.—Information has begun to leak out that what Japan intended when asking for absolute equality with other powers regarding non-capital ships was an unlimited fleet of fast, commerce destroyers.

Admiral Baron Kato did not specify such, but that is the only explanation that, naval experts say, can be placed on the Japanese desire to be unhampered by restrictions. In view of this the press in some quarters is drawing such a lurid picture of Japan in the role of commerce destroyer that it is believed to be reacting strongly on the ideas of the American people who have heretofore considered Japan as a "pacific" power in more senses than one.

French correspondents, on the other hand, are cabling Paris their firm belief that the United States does not intend to use the conference as an opportunity to dictate to Japan. While sympathising with China's demands, America has no reason to wage a crusade against the Japanese in China's behalf, but are ready to step into any breach that may occur with a proposal for compromise.

Close French School Owing To Epidemic; Vaccination Urged

The French Municipal School was closed yesterday on account of the small pox epidemic.

Figures from local physicians and the Health Department indicate that the epidemic is not abating and further urgent advice is given for those who have not already done so to be vaccinated without delay. Physicians' offices the past few days have been congested with people seeking the protection of vaccine and "vaccination parties" are very much affected in the residential districts, where whole families and their neighbors gather to await the doctor's call.

The present epidemic is described by physicians as being as bad as any ever experienced in Shanghai and the disease has appeared in particularly virulent form.

Asks For Court Aid In Collecting Taxes Claimed Due Council

Application for a Mixed Court order to compel payment of Tls. 121.60, alleged to be back taxes due the Municipal Council from William Whitgob, 178 Bubbling Well Road, was made yesterday by Mr. R. C. Faithful, police legal advisor.

Mr. Faithful stated that Mr. Whitgob owed the Council Tls. 199.40 in 1918 for taxes on houses in Broadway, for which a Mixed Court order was given directing the payment of Tls. 10 monthly. On behalf of the Council he asked an order for a lump sum payment. The application was held over for hearing before the Consular Body's Assessor because of Russian interests.

KIPLING LOOKS TO WORLD VIBRATING FOR FOUR YEARS

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Nov. 19.—Upon his arrival here today, Mr. Rudyard Kipling in an interview expressed the opinion that four years would elapse before the world recovered its balance.

He was absolutely confident that the intimate union between France and Britain would continue and declared that all German efforts to split the Entente would remain fruitless.

China Refuses To Sign Through Sense Of Dignity

(Reuter's Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The Far Eastern Committee has unanimously adopted a resolution, declaring in favor of the territorial and administrative integrity of China. The resolution, which was drafted and presented by Mr. Elihu Root was signed by eight Powers, China refraining from signature as unfitting to a document regarding herself.

Semenov Goes To America In Near Future Is Report

Ataman Semenov, the notorious Cossack leader of Siberia, who recently found refuge in Shanghai after being repudiated by Russian military units in the Pre-Armur zone is soon to leave for America. The Ataman, now in Tientsin, has obtained an American vise, according to Mr. K. W. Luchich, his Shanghai representative and English mouthpiece, who has just returned from an interview in the North.

The Ataman, according to Mr. Luchich, is not aiming to attend the Washington conference, nor is he journeying to America in connection with the scheme whereby American financiers shall bear the brunt of the expense of the anti-Red uprising planned for the Spring. Instead he is to "rest" in the States, studying American governmental methods, with the idea of establishing, as near as possible a like government in Siberia when he again assumes control. He will not even visit Washington.

RETAIN REVOLT PLAN

The plan for a revolt of all anti-Bolshevistic forces over all of Russia, forecasted by Mr. Luchich a month ago has not been abandoned because of the inability of the Siberian chief to obtain vises to the White Conferences this Winter at Belgrade and Paris. The revolution must come whether Semenov attends the European conferences or not, he declares.

According to the plans of Semenov, who claims to represent the anti-Bolshevistic party in the Far East, the people of Russia, particularly of the Far East demand another, a newer, a freer regime of government than is afforded by either the Chita or the Merkulof governments. The Ataman's idea is to establish a government with local autonomy as the basis, with decentralisation of power as the keynote, and with popular control of the whole state through local elections as the mode of law making.

TO WORK WITH WRANGEL

The plan of the Russian Whites, at the present, is that General Wrangel, who kept the last White force in the field in European Russia, shall assume the dictatorship of Russia proper, while Ataman Semenov, who was the last leader to oppose the Reds in Siberia shall become the dictator of Siberia. Later according to the scheme, when a more peaceful time shall have arrived, Wrangel and Semenov both will give over their dictatorates to a government as much like unto the American as is practicable.

General Wrangel, according to Mr. Luchich is still in Constantinople. A large percentage of his refuge army is with him. The balance are enrolled with the Serbian troops. But all will be available when the big call comes to the tri-colored flag of Russia as against the Red.

General Wrangel, according to Mr. Luchich, has recently received a fund of half a million gold roubles—he does not say exactly from whom—and he will be in a fair position by springtime to resume, with the help of other anti-Bolshevistic factions now in Europe, the offensive against the Moscow government. Semenov, formerly a commander of an escadrille on the German front under Wrangel, is in exact accord with the Crimean leader. They both hope to restore Russia to the Whites.

SEEK AMERICAN LOAN

The important question of finance, especially for the Siberian campaign, according to Mr. Luchich, is to be solved by a union of the projected Semenov government and American bankers. The plan, which is being developed now in New York by a Semenov agent, is that the Semenov government shall receive a 25-year loan from American banks, with no material security and no protecting concessions. The new government would have 51 percent of the control of the fund; the American banks, it would appear, are to take a gambling chance on Semenov's ability to re-establish his control of Siberia. According to Mr. Luchich a cable recently received from the States declares that the American banks are quite satisfied with the plan, and have indicated their willingness to participate.

The Semenov faction is being represented at the Washington conference by Prof. Ossendovsky, described by Mr. Luchich as an expert in International affairs, especially insofar as concerns the Far East. The professor, who is said to be the only representative of the anti-Bolshevik forces in Washington, visited Ataman Semenov in Shanghai a little more than a month ago, at which time he learned the Ataman's wishes for the future of Siberia.

Semenov expects to leave Tientsin today or tomorrow for Tsingtau where he will join his wife and daughter. After a short visit he plans to proceed to Yokohama for a short stay, and then sail for America.

RAISE CORP. TAX

(Special To The China Press)

Washington, Nov. 21.—The House-Senate Conference has completed a revision of the tax bill. The conferees have agreed that the corporation income tax should be 12½ percent, which figure was contained originally in the House measure, and is an increase of 2½ percent over the present rate and is 2½ percent less than the Senate figure.

China Ready For 50 Million Loan If Allowed Surtax Of 25 Percent On Customs Dues

Thirty Millions For Domestic And $20,000,000 For Foreign Loans Is Plan For The Distribution Of Proceeds

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Nov. 22.—Regarding the request made to the Diplomatic Corps by the Waichiaopu on Friday for the approval of imposition of a surtax of 25 percent in addition to the present customs dues, it is learned from reliable quarters that the Chinese Government has under contemplation a plan to issue public loans to the amount of $50,000,000. The surtax would be security and the object would be the relief of domestic and foreign loans. Some $30,000,000 is to be applied to the redemption of the principal and interest of domestic loans and $20,000,000 to the payment of foreign loans.

Judging from the foregoing, it appears that the Chinese Government has virtually accepted Sir Francis Aglen's plan and is under way along the path of that policy.

PAOTINGFU DECIDES ON DEFENSIVE STAND ONLY

Wu Pei-fu And Tsao Kun Refuse To Set Forth Against South

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Nov. 22.—The Paotingfu conference was opened Sunday when the following conclusions were arrived at:

With regard to internal affairs, the North shall take an absolutely defensive attitude towards the South on the ground that the issue of subjugation order against the Canton Government, according to Marshal Tsao Kun and General Chang Ching-hui, would only aggravate the existing complications, although General Wu Pei-fu urged for the promulgation of the subjugation order.

With regard to the military funds question, the increase of land tax by 20 percent imposed on all over Chihli, the additional income of transit tax imposed on goods passing through Hupeh and the total revenue of the Peking-Hankow Railway shall be all applied to military expenses.

With regard to the policy regarding Hunan, the representative of General Chao Heng-ti has demanded the withdrawal of Chihli troops from Yochow on condition that the Southern troops are not to be admitted into Hunan, but the request was rejected by Tsao Kun and Wu Pei-fu on the ground that Yochow is vital to the defense of Hunan.

GERMANY PROBED CAN PAY NOW IS ALLIES' DECISION

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 21.—The Berlin correspondent of the Temps telegraphs that the Reparations Commission has decided that Germany can pay, after having made a minute examination of her resources.

The Commission learned, for example, that the ordinary and extraordinary deficits were covered by increasing the floating debt of 52 milliards of marks between April and October and by adding 19 milliards of marks in circulation.

Moreover the Commission also discovered that the revenue from the tax on exports is estimated at 824,000,000 marks, that is, about 1 percent of the value of the total exports.

The German Government also through its agents has thrown a large number of securities on the market and the official control of commerce under the form of importation and exportation licences is authorised for practically no other reason than to facilitate penetration into the foreign markets and in no way for the purpose of increasing the revenues of the State.

The Reparations Commission has fixed the amount and the dates for the next payments by Germany namely, 500,000,000 marks in gold on January 15, and 100,000,000 marks in gold on February 15.

INDIA AGAIN ORDERLY

MEMBERS of the Army Ordnance Association inspecting the new 16-inch .50-calibre gun, which was tested at the Aberdeen, Md. proving grounds the other day. The giant rifle, the army's most powerful gun, is mounted on a disappearing carriage. It fires a 2,400-pound projectile approximately twenty-two miles. Experts familiar with this huge rifle are confident it can shoot a distance of thirty-five miles. The gun is sixty-six feet long, weighs 240,000 pounds, and a charge of 850 pounds of smokeless powder is necessary to fire the 2,400-pound shell. . . .

Shriners Will Gambol In Blackface Tomorrow Night

For some reason practically everything a colored gentleman says is considered funny. When you combine forty-eight niggers with several good stories, a raft of Southern songs, some red vests and a few tambourines, the place where they are is bound to be popular, that's all. And the fact that their niggerliness will disappear shortly thereafter in the depths of a dressing-room towel doesn't particularly hurt the effect, either.

The forty-eight darkies who will weigh down the stage of the Olympic Theater to the creaking point tomorrow night were not to the color born. But when Dr. Charles G. Irons snaps his fingers and says "Yea-a-a, bo!" when Mr. A. S. Glemby does an old-fashioned Southern shake-down, and when Mr. J. S. Raynes asks a few impertinent queries and when Mr. Nelson Lurton or Mr. R. W. Hayes or the other end men answer them, there's going to be an important colored question in Shanghai and the question will be, "Will they do it again next year?"

The Minstrel Show to be held on the evenings of Thursday, Friday and Saturday is the first public entertainment to be given by the Nomad Oasis of the Mystic Shrine. The Oasis was formed last year by members of twenty-nine different shrine organisations in America. A class of seventy-nine, which was initiated shortly afterward, represented nineteen nationalities and thirty-three states. A new class of about one hundred will be put through the Shrine rites probably late in January. Incidentally the Shanghai Oasis is the first group to organise outside of North America or the possessions of the United States.

HALF-MILLION SHRINERS

The Mystic Shriners, of whom there are over half a million, date their origin from 1870 when a New Porker, Mr. William J. Florence, was initiated into the mysteries of an Egyptian order while spending the winter on the Nile. It was the order of Bektash, an organisation founded in the early beginnings of Mohammedan history, to serve as a Vigilance Committee, and Arabian Ku Klux Klan for the benefit of gentlemen who got too gay with the Ten Commandments and the Municipal Regulations of Mecca. Gradually it severed itself from its unofficial police duties and became a somewhat radical organisation which sought to break down the narrow boundaries of Islam by initiating men of other creeds and nations.

Much taken by the brilliant Oriental setting of the ritual and the highly-colored wording of its ceremonials, William Florence took these new impressions home with him, passed them through Customs, trimmed them down a trifle, and finally used them in the organisation of the Mecca Temple in New York City.

PLAY AND PHILANTHROPY

Though the original ceremonies were solemn enough to satisfy even humorless Arabs, the Mystic Shrine soon developed into the playground of Masonry. It became the place where prospective brethren scorched their feet on the hot sands, rode the camel, and did dips into space from the tops of the Pyramids. At the same time, however, it has interested itself very extensively in philanthropic work and patriotic service. The Shriners in the United States give a million dollars a year for the care of crippled children.

The Minstrel Show tomorrow night is being held chiefly for the establishments of a John R. Hykes Memorial Scholarship, which will pay the college expenses of an American boy or girl in China.

The end men who will tell the interlocutor where to get off tomorrow night are Messrs. T. W. Bowern, A. S. Glemby, W. R. Hayes, Charles G. Irons, F. Kimball, R. P. Roberts, N. E. Lurton and P. N. Wilkins. The songs range from the latest jazz to Old Black Joe, and the Shriners will keep up their reputation for Oriental color by the black and yellow costumes of the twenty-four ushers.

AMERICANS HERE TO OBSERVE DAY OF THANKSGIVING

Observance of the Thanksgiving holiday by the American community of Shanghai is to take the form of a public Thanksgiving service at the Union Church at 5:45 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and in the evening what has been planned as "a genuine old-time Thanksgiving party" is to be given by the Community Church at the Navy Y. M. C. A.

Gen. W. M. Black, American representative on the international consultative board of engineers now working with the Whangpoo Conservancy Board, is to preside at the formal service in the afternoon.

The service will open with prayer by Dr. F. L. Hawks Pott, President of St. John's University. Rev. F. D. Gamewell of the Methodist Episcopal Church will lead the responsive reading, following which Mr. E. S. Cunningham, American Consul-General will read President Harding's Thangsgiving proclamation. Dr. Luther Freeman, Pastor of the Community Church, will deliver the Thanksgiving Day address. The service which will be attended by the American Company of the Shanghai Volunteer Corps, will close with the benediction given by the Rev. George Fitch.

It is announced that all Americans are invited to attend the Thanksgiving party at the Navy Y. M. C. A. in the evening and bring friends. As a number of American warcraft are in port a large number of men of the navy are expected as guests.

CHINA ALSO STARTLES CONFERENCE BY DEMAND FOR REAL SQUARE DEAL

Asks Rulings Whereby Present And Future Problems May Be Solved For Benefit Of All Nations Of World In Most Equitable Manner Possible—Delegates Work Rapidly

EQUAL CHANCE FOR ALL, HER PLEA

Would Throw Open Resources But Ask That She Also Benefit By Being Made Equal Of All Others In World—Making Her Own Bargain

BY NATHANIEL PEFFER

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, November 21.—China's demands have fallen on the Conference with a shock second only to that which accompanied Secretary Hughes' plan for scrapping battleships. It is construed as giving China the advantage of having taken the initiative for the first time in her dealings with the Occident.

While it was known that the Chinese delegation was busily framing its program in the last few days, it was not supposed that she was so definitely prepared or intended to announce her basis of negotiations so soon. Already she has cleared the way for the discussion of details.

Minister Alfred Sze in his preamble to China's demands stated as follows:

"In formulating China's principles, the purpose kept steadily in view has been the obtaining of rules in accordance with which existing and possible future political and economic problems of the Far East may be settled most justly and with due regards for the rights and legitimate interests of all powers concerned. . . "Thus it has been sought to harmonise the particular interests of China with the general interests of the whole world. China is anxious to play her part not only in maintaining peace, but in promoting the material advantage and cultural development of all nations.

"She earnestly desires to make her natural resources available to all peoples who need them and in return receive benefits of free and equal intercourse with all people.

"In order that she may do this it is necessary that China should have every possible opportunity to develop her political institutions in accordance with the genius and needs of her own people.

"China now is contending with difficult problems which necessarily arise when any country makes a radical change in its form of government. These problems she will be able to solve if given opportunity to do so.

"This means not only that she would be freed from danger or threat of foreign aggression, but that so far as circumstances possibly permit she shall be relieved of limitations which deprive her of autonomous administrative action and prevent her from securing adequate public revenues."

While it is recognised here that China is asking for more than she expects to get, she has the advantage of raising her own bargain points and reversing her position of the previous fortnight when suggestions of international control and awarding Japan a special position in Manchuria and Mongolia put China on a strictly defensive position in the bargaining.

Full Text Of Resolution Regarding China's Status

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Nov. 22.—The following is the text of the resolution adopted by the Far Eastern Committee yesterday:

"It is the firm intention of the powers attending the Conference:

"Firstly, to respect the sovereignty, independence and territorial and administrative integrity of China;

"Secondly, to provide the fullest and most unembarrassed opportunity for China to develop and maintain an effective and stable Government;

"Thirdly, to use their influence for the purpose of effectually establishing and maintaining the principle of equal opportunity for the commerce and industry of all nations throughout Chinese territory; and,

"Fourthly, to refrain from taking advantage of the present conditions in order to seek special rights and privileges, abridging the rights of subjects of friendly States and also to refrain from countenancing any action inimical to the security of such States."

The Committee's resolution is regarded as a substantial advance in the work of the Conference, inasmuch as it clearly formulates the intentions of the great powers toward China. Thus far, the delegates have taken the open door and Chinese integrity without specifying more clearly what they mean. Diplomatists point out that previous declarations never included administrative integrity in the general question of Chinese sovereignty.

The resolution was passed after a discussion lasting two hours. The Chinese delegates left the Conference more hopeful of fruitful results. The powers share many divergencies of opinion which will probably be evidenced at the pending debates on other Chinese questions, but it is believed that, as agreed, the general formulation of principles will agree to a compromise on the differences.

Japan Shows Sympathy For China But Has Reservations

(Special To The China Press)

Washington, Nov. 21.—Japan today joined the other powers in expressing sympathy for China's national aspirations, but added a postscript regretting the tendency toward explanation of innumerable minor matters in regard to Japan's attitude. Japan repeatedly assured in the statement that she is going to mention specific points in the Chinese-Japanese controversy.

The Japanese delegates informed the conference that Japan claimed unusual rights and privileges in the procuring of raw materials from China, but that she harbored no policy of aggrandisement in extra-territorial rights. Other delegates broadly expressed their desire to preserve the territorial integrity of China.

DEEDS NOT WORDS

Washington, Nov. 21.—The Chinese delegation at the disarmament conference today is awaiting concrete evidence of Japan's good faith before waxing enthusiastic over today's developments.

The delegation says that Japan has previously declared the same policies but has not adhered to them. Baron Kato presented Japan's statement in the absence of Shidehara, who is ill.

Defense Is Opened In Ezra Property Dispute

Defendant In Suit Being Heard Before British Supreme Court Gives Testimony

The hearing of the case brought by Ellis Ezra against his brother Isaac was continued yesterday morning in the British Supreme Court before Judge Skinner Turner. The examination of the defendant Isaac Ezra was continued and in answer to Mr. Hartopp he said that Mrs. Sassoon was one of plaintiff's three sisters.

Question—Now I want to take you to the incident of the Chekiang Bank shares; what do you say about that?

Answer—Some days after I realised that this option was going to be one-sided if the option was not taken up as there was no rent from the Mohawk Road property and I pointed this out to him. I asked him if he had any money to cover this rent. He said no, but he said he had some shares. He mentioned some rubber shares at the Chekiang Bank. He said he had some gold dollars. These gold dollars were hypothecated. I advised him to sell the shares and he told me to do so. The next day he gave me a letter to the Bank for 1500 Padangs and 250 Ziangbes and these were to be delivered to me on payment of Taels 52,530. I took my check to the bank and when I get there I was surprised to find that there were 50 Ziangbes instead of 250. Nevertheless I paid the full amount.

TERMS OF OPTION

Before I took these shares it was arranged that the shares would be taken as rent for the Mohawk Road property for three months but if the option was taken up these shares would be returned. After I got the shares I went to the house and said to myself "I will make an option, agreement" and so I dictated to my wife at that time the draft of this option agreement.

Mr. Harris objected to the draft going in as evidence.

Continuing the defendant said the mortgages were transferred to him and he instructed Mr. Hansen to prepare the documents necessary for the purpose. Mr. Hansen's charges with regard to the Rue Massenet property the transfer was made on January 7. On December 31 when defendant called at the plaintiff's office he found him busy with Gensburger and Ellis eventually told him that he could not get the money from Gensburger as there was a hitch. The money that he advanced him on the promise of repayment on December 31 was not returned. A few days after Ellis called him to his office and stated that he had considerable trouble and mentioned that there was a charge against him the next day by Somekh.

TALKS BANKRUPTCY

Witness said that Ellis told him he had to obtain Taels 15,000. Ellis said he would not have left it for the last moment had not Ellis Hayim promised to fix it for him.

Defendant said: He then turned around and stated that if the money was not forthcoming he would have to face bankruptcy. He told me he expected money and I eventually agreed to guarantee him for Taels 2,500. I left him at 4:30 o'clock p.m.

That night I was at the theater and when coming out of the Lyceum I was surprised to find in my car. He said he wanted to see me and told me that the Taels 2500 I was to guarantee were of no use to him. He had nowhere to go, he said, as Edward Ezra would have nothing to do with him.

I eventually agreed to pay Taels 5,000 which he said was not sufficient and he wanted Taels 10,000. He said he had nothing to live for and that if I did not see him the next morning I would know why. I then agreed to give him the Taels 7500. He then said to me that he had to get another Taels 7,500 and offered Mrs. Sassoon's diamonds. I agreed, provided he brought a letter of authority from Mrs. Sassoon. I typed out a guarantee for Taels 15,000. It was refused and the letter was returned. I gave the guarantee to deliver 15,000 shares and Edward Ezra agreed to deliver me the shares on payment in one year before January 26. In March I took delivery of the Great Western Road property. I spoke to the contractors and other people and at times spoke to Ellis Ezra about the property.

MAKES IMPROVEMENTS

I remodelled 28 houses including the corner shop and changed it into foreign residences. My brother knew that this work was going on. He used to come to the office where saw the contractor. I never asked his permission for carrying on the work. Mr. David Gubbay came to my office sometime at the end of March. At the time Ellis Ezra was in the office. I was trying to sell the Rue Massenet property to Mr. Gubbay and to too khim to see the property. The plaintiff knew that from the conversations but never joined in. Mr. Goldman came to my office in April and said he wanted to buy the property as he heard that I owned it. I told him I could sell it but it had a lease for three years. He did not want to wait so long.

I told him I could give him a property at the corner of Mohawk and Weihaiwei Roads. I told him that the price was Taels 100,000 and the mortgage was Taels 70,000. He said—"Oh that is Ellis' house."

I went to Ellis the next day and said I had a Chinese buyer for Taels 100,000. He told me I was a fool and said that he could get Taels 130,000. The interest on the mortgage was guaranteed by Edward Ezra.

The mortgage insisted that the guarantee be continued in the change of mortgagor. Ellis Ezra bought the Mohawk Road property years ago for Taels 80,000 which included furniture and contents. Everybody thought at the time he paid a fictitious price. This was seven or eight years ago. It is an old house.

When I bought the properties in December last I thought Taels 81,000 was a lot for Mohawk Road. The Great Western Road property was worth Taels 65,000 and I saw great scope there. Regarding the Rue Massenet property the value I placed was Taels 25,000. It would have been worth more had there been no lease.

SHOWED LOSS

Since I purchased the property I have paid taxes, insurance and interest on the mortgage. The properties showed a loss of Taels 8,940 a year. The plaintiff never volunteered nor was he called upon to pay the loss.

On the third of May Ellis Ezra visited me and said he understood I was selling the Mohawk Road property and I told him that it was true. He said—"If I bring you Taels 2,000 or Taels 3,000 will you not sell" and I told him to come next day if he had the money and I would let him know whether or not I would agree.

My brother never showed me any letter addressed to him by Mr. Morehead.

The direct examination was ended with witness saying that Ellis told him the rent of the property was $600, that it never was $760 before the place was rebuilt. He said rebuilding meant a considerable increase in to value of the property.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Mr. Harris here took up the cross examination.

"Tell me what terms were agreed upon when the letter of December 13 was agreed to? was the first question asked. Answer—If he paid the option money of Taels 600 regularly, he had a right to buy back the property.

What was the repurchase price? My cost plus twenty per cent.

That is Taels 30,000 plus twenty percent? It might be Taels 30,000.

What was the agreement? The agreement did not specify the Taels 30,000.

What did you pay him? I paid him Taels 31,000.

Taels 31,000 plus twenty percent? We did not state the amount.

I want to know what you mean by your cost; what was it? I paid Taels 31,000.

Was it Taels 31,000 plus twenty percent? I suppose so.

The option was kept alive provided he paid Taels 600 on March 31st and subsequent months? That is right.

Would your memory be better in May than it is now? I suppose it is the same.

OFFERS LETTER

Mr. Harris here introduced a letter written to Ellis Ezra by defendant. It read: I am in receipt your letter of even date and would like to state here that the verbal arrangement you speak of was the following:

"I was agreeable to allow you to repurchase these three properties at any time before December 13, 1921 upon repayment of the purchase price plus a figure which would compensate me for interest and loss of use of the money invested, provided a payment of Taels 1610 was made me on Dec. 31, 1920 and for the sum of Taels 600 monthly commencing with March, 1921.

"It was farther distinctly understood that the above mentioned payment must be made in order to keep he option alone.

"As none of the above mentioned sums have been received from you your option to repurchase has naturally long since lapsed and I regret that I can not consider any proposition to revive same.

Yours faithfully "Isaac Ezra.."

Did you say to Ellis Ezra "if you do not pay on the thirty first of December, your option ceases?" I said that to myself.

So far as he was concerned the option still existed up to the thirty first of March? He promised to pay Taels 1610.

Did the option cease on December 31 or March 31? At any date. The arrears of the interest was a breach of the term of option.

Did he break one of the terms on December 31 by not paying the arrears? He did. I consider that if the payment of arrears was not made he would break the term of the agreement.

It was distinctly understood that if he did not pay Taels 1610 on December 31 he lost his option? Answer—It was never discussed. There were certain terms in the option and he broke one of the terms.

The suggestion of selling the property to you came from Ellis through Judah? Yes.

And you say that the price of the Mohawk property was Taels 81,000? Yes.

What happened in that interview when Ellis asked you Taels 81,000 and Taels 61,000 for the other property? Answer—I saw Ellis and told him that Judah had told me that he had three properties which he wanted to sell. Ellis admitted this.

He wanted Taels 65,000 for the Great Western Road property and Taels 81,000 for the Mohawk Road property. Ellis also told me that he was getting no rent from the Mohawk Road property?

Will you explain why if he sold it for Tls. 81,000 after three months he tells you that the property is worth Tls. 150,000?—Properties sometimes have a fictitious value. There were no buyers in December. There were buyers in February, March, April.

You say Ellis bought the property seven or eight years ago for Tls. 80,000? That was common knowledge.

You were employed by Ellis?—In my spare hours.

Will you be surprised if the purchase price is Tls. 85,000, and to know that the entry for this is in your own handwriting in Ellis' books?—No, I will not.

Do you know how much he has spent in furnishing the place?—Some thousands.

May I put it at $12,000?—I suppose so.

The French Fathers advanced him Tls. 70,000. If the property is worth Tls. 80,000, why did the French Fathers advance Tls. 70,000?—It is their business.

If you thought that Tls. 80,000 was too high why did you not suggest to Ellis a lower figure?—I thought it was a good price.

Why should he offer to sell you a property that he purchased for Tls. 85,000 seven years ago, for Tls. 80,000?—He could not get any better price.

Not with furniture?—With or without furniture.

Why were you interested in these properties? You told us in your examination that you were interested in these properties?—I was interested in the other properties but not in the Mohawk property.

I put it to you that in case of Ellis going into bankruptcy you could stick to the property?—That statement to me is a joke.

From your knowledge of mortgages, is it a common thing to have a property transferred to your name at once?—Sometimes, Yes.

Insurance companies when they take over other properties do they register at the Consular offices?—At times they do and at times they do not.

You say that at the time you paid the money part of it would go to Judah?—Yes. As for Judah, he told me not to pay it if it was for his sake, as his lawyer Harris had asked him to go into bankruptcy.

You know that the check was paid to Judah?—I saw him take it.

Did you know on December 13 that the money was going to him?—Yes.

On December 13 you gave a check for Tls. 1,000. Was it a further sum for the properties?—It was from margin. I regard it as part of the same transaction.

Why did you return the diamonds?—I did not want the diamonds as I did not guarantee the Tls. 7,500.

Did you take any document from Ellis that he was liable to you for Tls. 1,610?—No.

Did you take any document from the plaintiff that he was liable to you for Tls. 7,500?—No.

Did you take any document from him that he was liable for Tls. 650?—No.

Did you take any document from him that he was liable for Tls. 1,000?—No.

I put it to you that the reason why you did not take these documents was because it was part of the transaction?—You are wrong.

Then, why did you take a written charge on his motor car?—I was not willing to give him the money. That was on March 22. It was for Tls. 1,000.

The defendant added that he gave the plaintiff one year to pay the amount, and to show good faith Ellis had to pay some money, which would also go as rent. In case the option was forfeited any payments made would be considered as rent.

Was Tls. 600 the proper rent of the house?—At ten percent on Tls. 80,000, it is a fair rental basis.

Was there anything said by the plaintiff about buying the house?—He suggested at one time buying it.

Do you believe that he would lose his option on the properties by any non-payment? Do you also believe that the option lapsed on December 31?—I did not tell him. I told him on May 3.

The hearing will be resumed this morning.

THE FIFTH WISE MAN

"I'll wait a while before buying my life insurance," said the first wise man. He had to pay 15 per cent more because the cost had increased.

"Next year will be just as good," said the second wise man. He died six months later.

"I'm in no hurry—I can get insurance any time," said the third wise man. He discovered his error later, when the doctor told him he was uninsurable.

"I'll have more money for insurance in a couple of years," said the fourth wise man. But a reckless chauffeur ran over him, and the day when he can buy insurance has passed.

Now there was a FIFTH man and he bought his Life Insurance from the Asia Life Insurance Company when he had the chance. He isn't worrying any. Neither is his family.

LUSITANO CLUB TO LIQUIDATE AND REORGANISE

Resolutions for the liquidation of the Shanghai Lusitano Club in view of the proposed formation of a new and larger organisation on a wide community basis will be presented at an extraordinary general meeting of the Club to be held Friday at 9:15 p.m.

The move follows upon the recent trip to Macao by Consul-General Casanova, who sought a loan of $200,000 for the establishment of the institution. While it was decided that Macao could not make a loan to the local Portuguese community, it was announced by the Governor that at the drawing of the next budget a subsidy will be proposed, to the full extent of the amount asked if possible, to be charged against Macao.

The resolution of liquidation proposes the disposal of all the assets to the "Club Lusitano de Shanghai," the new club. Messrs. J. J. de Souza and L. A. M. Ozorio are to be proposed as liquidators and one of the resolutions proposes the requesting of the Minister of Foreign Affairs at Lisbon to give the "Club Lusitano de Shanghai" a letter of charter and permission to use the national coat of arms.

A new General Committee is to be elected at the meeting.

Tomb Enters Into Boundary Dispute

When the Chapei boundary dispute arose recently threats were made by Chapei residents against a man named Pae, who was accused of selling to the Council the land in dispute. Part of the retribution promised him for thus "betraying his country" was the desecration of his ancestors' tombs.

In view of this threat Mr. Pae Ching-poo, compradore for Jardine, Matheson and Company, who has nothing in common with the Pae aforementioned aside from bearing the same family name, has addressed a letter to the people of Chapei. His ancestor also was named Pae, he states, and is buried at Chu Chia Jao, Kiangwan. He requests in the event of the molestations promised that this grave be not desecrated.

Chinese authorities are understood to have ordered a survey made of the disputed area with a view of having the Government negotiate with the Consular body for a settlement of the boundary dispute.

Admiral Tsiang Tsung, Chief of the Admiralty, and Vice-Admiral Doo Sih-kwei held a conference in Shanghai Monday which resulted in telegrams being sent to the President, the Cabinet and the Minister of Marine requesting an immediate payment of the back salaries due officers and men of the Chinese navy.

According to Admiral Tsiang $10,000,000 is now due the navy from the government.

Tuchuns of the various provinces were also wired by the Admiral, requesting financial assistance, and it was said that unless the government took immediate steps to pay the money due, the naval officers would take steps to support themselves.

ALL-HAWAII TEAM BEAT WASH'N U. AT TOKIO, 3-2

Heavy Hitting Islanders Win From Collegians In Good Game

Tokio, Nov. 12.—The game between the All-Hawaii Stars and the University of Washington on the Recreation Ground yesterday proved as close and exciting as was anticipated, despite the fact that the star pitcher of each team was taken out in the early innings, Sam Ku on account of a wrenched ankle, and Leonard to make way for a pinch hitter. Setzer, who relieved the latter, weakened in the last half of the ninth inning, when the Hawaians drove in two runs, and won the game 3—2.

The Hawaian team scored first, in the fourth inning. Kan Yen, the first batter singled to right field, and was sacrificed to second. After Johnson had flied out to center, Cook beat out an infield hit. Kan Yen went to third on this play, and came in when Barrett threw wild to home.

Marriott put his team ahead in the next inning. Bakke had singled and been sacrificed to second, and Barrett got his base on balls. Marriott then went in to bat for Leonard, and made a beautiful threebase hit to left field, scoring the other two runners. Welts and Torrance followed with easy outs.

There was no more scoring until the last half of the ninth, just as the sun seemed to be going down on a victory for Washington. With one down, Setzer weakened almost visibly. Cook made a threebase hit to left field, and Shipp Lo followed immediately with a double to the same corner. Akana grounded to Welts and it looked like extra innings. But Victor slammed one to left field and the game was over.

The game was a bit slow in spots, but abounded in beautiful fielding. Moriyama, Johnson, and Welts all made stops that seemed impossible, and there were several fine catches in the outfield. Washington made three fast double plays.

Harvard Stages Comeback In Final Game With Yale

Buell's 37-Yard Run In Fourth Period Paves Way For Win

(Special To The China Press)

Cambridge, Massachusetts, Nov. 20 (Delayed).—Beaten by the eleven from little Center College, and trod upon by the great Orange and Black gridiron men from Princeton, Harvard staged a wonderful comeback in the final period of the game with Yale yesterday afternoon at the Stadium, and won by a score of 10-3.

Quarterback Buell goes down in Harvard football history along with Burr and Kennard and Brickley and Mahan and Eddie Casey for it was Buell who pulled yesterday's game out of the fire.

Faultless in his judgment of selection of plays, he ran his powerful eleven in wonderful style and finished off the day's work by a thirty-seven yard dash through the entire Blue team in the fourth period, a run which paved the way for the Harvard touchdown that spelled victory for the Crimson.

50,000, SEE COMBAT

Fifty thousand spectators shivered in the big Stadium and watched the greatest Harvard-Yale battle since the afternoon that Vic Kennard booted the goal from the field which turned back Yale, 4-0. Thrill followed thrill.

For nearly three periods the two elevens battled with neither having the edge—and in the fourth Buell tramped all over the Stadium greensward and entered the Crimson Hall of Fame.

The end of the third period saw the game turn to Harvard. Captain Aldrich had given his Yale team a three-point lead by a dropkick from the 25 yard line in the second period.

Yale had the ball within four feet of the Harvard goal line when the tide turned. The Crimson forwards held, a Yale back fumbled, a Harvard end snatched the ball and dashed five yards away from the goal. Buell immediately punted his team out of danger. The third quarter was over.

HOW HARVARD SCORED

Yale essayed a forward pass in midfield as a starter for the fourth period. Buell nabbed the leather and tore 37 yards through most of the Yale team, bringing the ball to the Yale 12 yard line. Buell then took the ball eight yards more—to the four yard line.

Then he called for a delayed pass and Owen crashed across the line for the touchdown. Buell kicked the goal, giving Harvard a seven-three lead.

There was no stopping the Crimson now. Yale kicked off and Harvard carried the ball right back to the Yale thirty-yard line where Buell dropkicked a goal making the final score 10-3.

Waseda Wins 6 To 5 From Canadian Team

Tokio, Nov. 15.—In a game which see-sawed back and forth throughout providing thrills every inning the Waseda team defeated the Canadian All Stars Tuesday afternoon 6 to 5. Tanaka, Japan's home run king, was responsible for four of Waseda's six scores, scoring two on his home run and two on a three-base drive.

The schedule of the Canadian team has been changed greatly, the schools with which games were scheduled for this week cancelling the engagements. A double header will be played at Shibaura beginning at noon Friday, however, the opposing nine being those of Keio and Meiji universities. The Canadian team hopes to realise enough out of this game to pay for passage home on the Empress of Asia Saturday.

H.A. IRWIN WINS CANADA CUP PLAY ON TOKIO LINKS

Annexes Canada Challenge Trophy By Turning In Best Score By Five Strokes

Tokio, Nov. 15.—Mr. H. A. Irwin won the Canada Challenge Cup at the links of the N.R.C. Golf Association Sunday, turning in the best net score by five strokes and a gross score which tied with Mr. C. C. Brady for second place. Twenty-six couples participated in the competition. Mr. H. B. Higinbotham donated the challenge cup, which is to become the permanent property of the person who wins it twice in succession or three times altogether.

The best card for 18 holes turned in during the day was the one reporting Mr. Brady's morning score of 72-37 and 35. Mr. I. Lefroy also made a most creditable showing and would have been a strong contender for first honors if it had not been for erratic playing at the third, fifth and sixth holes in his first round in the afternoon. Playing consistently.

Ridley And Villon Fight Hard Draw In Manila Ring

Manila, Nov. 7 (by mail).—Bud Ridley, the "Little Dempsey" of Seattle and Macario Villon, lightweight and featherweight champion of the Orient, fought a fierce ten round draw here last night before a record crowd.

Ridley, fighting his first fight in a Filipino ring, made a great hit with the fans by his up-and-at-it, aggressive tactics, and a draw fight is looked upon as a technical victory for the little American. Before the fight Elino Flores, who was defeated by Villon for the championship was challenged by Eugene Volaire, the French lightweight, and accepted the challenge.

Manila Imports Pug Who Beats 'Em Without A Blow

Chinese Fighter Engaged To Show How To Win Without Trying

Manila, Nov. 10.—Manila has seen some wonderful fighters and wonderful fights in late years, some of the men who have graced the local ring being nothing short of wonders in their profession, but the greatest sensation seen in any fight ring here is still to come. A fighter who beats his opponents without hitting them will soon appear at the Olympic Stadium and this fighter will come from China.

China produces fighters of the class that will make Jack Dempsey, Benny Leonard and others look like a Russian rouble beside an American dollar, according to the press agent.

The Chinese fighter soon expected here will, it is promised agree to go on with any boxer in Manila, from flyweights to heavyweights. He will do everything asked of him in accordance with the rules, and in addition he will give his opponent a big advantage—he will refrain from hiting during the first few rounds of the fight.

"The boxers here had better look out," the press agent says, "for if they hit this Chinese fighter it will be the beginning of the end for them. This fighter paralyses the arms of his opponents without hitting them. If a local boxer swings his right arm and hits this fighter on the chin, his right arm will be useless from then on and the harder he hits the greater will be the injury to his arm."

When the Chinese fighter sees a blow coming, he knows just where it will land and he centers all his energy in that spot with the result that that part of his body is as iron and hitting it is worse than striking a piece of steel with the fist.

After one arm of the opponent is paralysed, he will naturally use his left and this, too, will be paralysed, and the boxer will be helpless. Then, according to the dope it would be an easy matter for the Chinese to pop his opponent with one on the chin to beat him.

"But can he hit?" was the question.

"Well, I'll tell you," was the reply. "A fighter of this type goes out on a trial of strength, hits one of these lighters with his bare fist in mid-section and the boat just shakes through and through. That's how strong he can hit."

"Then bring one over, by all means, and we'll put him on," he was told.

French Lose Track Meet By Refusing New Score System

Paris, Oct. 11.—The French team's defeat in the last dual track meet of England and France was due to a new point scoring system proposed by the French Athletic Federation. The English players accepted the system after a debate and defeated France 123 to 118.

The method used was seven points for first; five for second; four for third; three for fourth; two for fifth and one for sixth. The English suggested five points for first, three for second and one for third. Had the French accepted this idea they would have won 50 to 49.

Understanding Prevails On Far East Questions

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, Nov. 20.—The Washington Times this morning editorially says, "A spirit of good understanding and agreement now prevail in the Conference to so evident an extent that it may be assumed that the interested powers will assent to an agreement on Far Eastern questions in order to maintain peace. The guarantees which China asks are mainly indispensable to a good understanding in the Far East and therefore to execution of the naval agreement."

The New York World says: "The Chinese proposals could be dealt with more easily if there were a Chinese government and nation in the sense that those terms apply to others. What respect can there be for a nation's integrity or geographical unity when it has no clear boundaries? What open door for a country without a government to keep the door open? First of all, China must be put on her feet, which is no easy task for others to help in. When the United States thinks of this, then the United States will realise that Japan cannot make all of the sacrifices demanded."

The Philadelphia Public Ledger says: "China wants to be a nation again and not a road to riches for aliens. China at present is a yellow giant, muttering, awakening. Whether China can take care of herself is a different question."

The Washington Herald declares: "The Chinese proposal is quite oriental and may mean anything or nothing. It is Japan's chance to put down readily acceptable principles to be used as a basis of discussion like Hughes did and clear out misunderstanding and win the good will of other nations."

Nanking Murder Still Unsolved

(China Press Correspondence)

Nanking, Nov. 21.—Two Chinese have been arrested in connection with the murder of a beautiful Chinese girl at the Ming Tombs three weeks ago and are being held for questioning by the police.

The men arrested are a mafoo, who drove an unknown man to the tea house near the Tombs just after the girl had been there, and the chauffeur of the automobile who drove the girl and her man companion to the tea house. Both deny knowing anything of the crime, but have given complete descriptions of the two men still wanted and declare they can identify them.

The girl, still unidentified despite the fact that city and surrounding country have been placarded with reward signs carrying her photograph and description, was found in the dank undergrowth in a corner of the roof of the old ancestral temple in front of the first Ming emperor's tomb.

She had been killed by having her head and chest crushed by an axe. The bloody axe was found in the tall grass near the body. The girl was extremely well dressed in silk and wore considerable jewelry. She evidently came from a good family.

The keeper of a tea house near the tombs told police that the girl, accompanied by a welldressed man, came to the tea house in a large automobile and walked on to the tomb. A few minutes later another man arrived in a carriage and inquired about the man and girl. He then followed them to the tombs. The two men returned without the girl and after waiting an hour or two the mafoo went in search of the girl. He could not find her. Two days later the body was found.

Why Is Stinnes In London Now Many Are Asking

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 21.—Endeavors to interview Herr Hugo Stinnes at his hotel in the West End this morning before he left by taxi-cab for the city, proved fruitless. The papers, however, credit him with amazing activity during his week-end in London conferring with business men.

Following a denial by the chairman of the British Dyestuffs Corporation of any Stinnes deal in Dyes, the latest stories are that Herr Stinnes is seeking to interest British financiers on a big scheme for developing the wealth of Russia, and is also endeavoring to develop his connection with the Welsh coal trade.

MAIL THEFT CASE RAISES A POINT OF JURISDICTION

Coolies In Mixed Court Charged With Pilfering On S.S. Korea Maru

The question of jurisdiction was raised at the Mixed Court yesterday in the case of four coolies charged with tampering with United States mails aboard the T.K.K. Steamer Korea Maru while the ship lay off Woosung Monday.

Detective Sergeant Balchin told the Court Assessor Tenney and Magistrate Kwan that the men were taken in charge by the ship's officers, who tried to get into communication with the authorities at Woosung but failed. They then sent the four to Shanghai, where they were turned over to the Municipal police. We asked if the Court would assume jurisdiction. The prisoners had been handling mail in the ship's hold and had opened one sack, consigned to Manila. When they were searched a number of hats were found, supposedly taken from parcels post packages.

Attorney J. W. Shoenfeld argued that the court could take jurisdiction and cited a case wherein two Italians alleged to have murdered an American postal official in New York were tried in Italy, having escaped to that country, which claimed jurisdiction over them.

The possibility of Japanese interests and the fact that the ship lay outside the bar at Woosung, therefore in Chinese territory, also enter into the case.

The Court remanded the matter until Thursday when a ruling will be given.

Four Hurt In Crash In Bubbling Well Rd.

A Chinese bicyclist was probably fatally injured and a chauffeur, an amah and a small Chinese child, occupants of a motor car, were slightly injured by flying glass when car and cycle collided on Bubbling Well Road near Gordon Road shortly after 6 o'clock last evening.

Just how the accident occurred had not been ascertained last night but the car, after striking the bicycle, or in trying to avoid it, swerved to the side of the road, running up on the pavement and crashing into and uprooting a tree. The cyclist was rushed to hospital, where it was said that there was little hope for his recovery.

Macao Boundary Up To Conference

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 18.—Hope for an early settlement of the Macao question is expressed today in Chinese circles as the result of encouraging news from Hongkong. H. E. M. de Frietas, the Portugese Minister in Peking, is now in Canton for the purpose of trying to reach a solution of this problem and it is reported that General Chen Chiung-ming, who has also recently returned to Canton, has through a delegate agreed with the Portuguese Minister that the first question to be decided is the demarcation of the boundaries of Macao.

Consequently the governor of Macao has been instructed by the minister to send a delegate to Ninkang for a conference with the Chinese delegates as to the boundaries of the Portuguese territory. When some agreement has been arrived at on this problem formal negotiations as to the settlement of the recent dispute will be officially opened.

PHILIPPINE BANK HEAD SENTENCED TO PRISON TERM

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, Nov. 22.—General Venancio Concepcion, former President and General Manager of the Philippine National Bank, has been found guilty of violation of the Philippine Banking Act in two cases, involving indirect loans to himself while an official of the Bank.

In the one case, which is connected with the Binalbagan Estate, General Conception was sentenced to two years' imprisonment and to a fine of 5,000 pesos. In the other case, which was connected with the Philippine Vegetable Oil Company, the sentence was a fine of 5,000 pesos.

In the latter case the prosecution proved that bank money had been lent to the Oil Company and later General Conception received shares of the Company stock. In the former case it was proved that money had been lent to the estate, which was later handed over to another company in which General Conception was a part-owner. An appeal is anticipated.

Vanderbilt Discusses Anglo-Japanese Issue

By Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr.

(Note: This young American millionaire publicist, it will be seen, sees eye to eye with Lord Northcliffe, the Great British publicist who has just passed through Shanghai.)

THERE are certain factions in the United States that are inherently anti-British. Americans who constitute the real fiber and backbone of the country are friendly to the English people.

But there is one issue, however, in which the majority of Americans coincide. They stand unalterably opposed to a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. Much misunderstanding between the two countries will be swept aside if England refuses to renew this obnoxious treaty.

Misunderstandings do exist between England and America. Americans are prone to believe that England's foreign policies are modelled on thoroughly English lines, and with little consideration for others. The American man in the street has his opinions, one of which is that "England has grabbed nearly everything on earth and is still reaching out for more." Furthermore, he has the idea that the Englishman is uppish and stiff-necked toward Americans and puts on a double suit of reserve in their presence. He is prone to criticize everything "Yankee" and to minimize American achievements.

Now, the Anglo-Japanese Alliance was all right in so far as it served its original purpose, which was directed at Russia. It was entered into as a purely defensive alliance, Lord Lansdowne declaring it to be "a measure of precaution," which "in no way threatened the present position or legitimate interests of other powers;" and that "it may become an offensive alliance only where attack is the best mode of providing for the defense."

I quote from a well known Japanese writer: "The Anglo-Japanese Alliance is nothing more than the formulation of these principles which the great powers have already declared or pledged themselves to observe in the Far East, such as the Open Door policy of the United States, Great Britain and Japan."

Let us proceed a step further. Russia made a series of demands on China in 1903 and "Japan regarded the conditions demanded by Russia as not only destructive of equal opportunities of the commercial nations but as an infringement on Chinese sovereignty. These aggressive acts in Manchuria and Korea following these demands produced a strong war feeling in Japan."

There is a strong war feeling in Japan today, and it is directed at the United States because this country is attempting to question Japanese infringement on Chinese sovereignty which likewise is proving destructive of the equal opportunities of the commercial nations.

In the opinion of Americans the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance will signify that England condones everything that Japan has done in the Orient with respect to China and Siberia. It will mean to Americans that England approves Japanese foreign policy with all its sinister threats to the world at large. It will mean to Americans that Japan has obeyed to the letter every concept of the alliance with reference to the Open Door in China and equal opportunities there for the other nations, when Americans know that she has done nothing of the sort.

Americans are both alarmed and annoyed by the Anglo-Japanese treaty renewal. They are alarmed because most Americans are convinced that we must fight Japan some day unless she reverses her foreign policy, and annoyed because England, knowing this to be a fact, may be willing to ally herself with a nation with whom we may one day be plunged into hostilities.

Misunderstanding should be prevented, especially during these times of uncertainty. The great English speaking races should be brought closer together, with a true understanding of each other. Anglo-Japanese alliances will not serve to create a better understanding. On the other hand they will only arouse further discord and probably cause a falling apart of the two great powers upon which the world depends for future peace and good-will.

How About It, Son?

BY S. E. KISER

You like to be called a good sport, don't you, son?
You boast that you always "play fair!"
You look with contempt on the prize that is won
By the chap who is not on the square.
With a feeling of pride, you tear through for your side,
And are cheered for your courage and zeal,
But how about those who had hopes that have died?
Are you giving "the folks" a square deal?

There is one who has battled for you, and he still
Is paying a price that is dear;
While you play he must work, never lacking the will,
Nor pausing where pleasures appear.
Do you ever, while wasting a chance to get on,
Consider him, chained to the wheel,
With your name in his thought, and his own chances gone,
Are you giving your dad a square deal?

You are proud to be called a good sport by your friends
Who know that you always "come through;"
You play the game fairly; however it ends,
No blame can be fastened on you.
If the dice or the cards bring you losses, you pay,
Smiling through the chagrin you conceal,
But, while you step high in your sportsman-like way,
Are your giving your dad a square deal?

Your mother sits late by the window to wait
For the sound of a step that she knows:
There's an ache in her breast, and she fears for your fate
More deeply as older she grows!
You are hailed with a cheer; there is pride in your strut;
You're "there" with your muscles like steel;
A generous winner; a game loser—but
Are you giving "the folks" a square deal?

(I notice that the Boss is chucking about dollars galore for songs for the Auto Show. Perhaps I shall catch him in a generous mood when dollars and royalties will be showered upon me for this latest of musical comedies with a plot. No prize will be given to the finder of the said plot.)

SCENE: ANY OLD PLACE

(Curtain rises and Beauty Chorus is discovered DRESSED—as chauffeurs.)

CHORUS

We want to go-o-o
We want to go-o-o,
We want to go to the Automobile Show-o-o
Will anyone here,
Please take us there,
And we don't care a bit if he's dark or fair,
For we want to go-o-o
To the Auto show-o-o,
To see the sights and dance and dine at nights,
Oh, if you will only take us
We will make of you a great fuss,
'Cause we want to go—to go—to the Auto Show.

(Chauffeurs dance the 'Hup Hop,' and exeunt.)

Enter Lonesome Lad and Reggie.

Lonesome Lad: Tell me Reggie how it is you are always getting around while I am feeling lonesome in my little attic room?

Reggie: Why don't you know? Then let me tell you (Band get ready for musical number.) Get all the money you can beg, borrow or pick up and:

BUY A CAR

In a world of his own,
Lived a fellow alone,
And his kingdom was up three flights of stairs;
He was a little bit shy,
That you know was just why,
He'd no one to share his joys or cares,
One day he met his pop'lar pal
And said "Do tell me why
You have a girl for everyday?"
Then Reggie made reply:

(Enter Beauty Chorus)

(Chorus) "Buy a car,
—Toot toot. (Horn.)
Buy a car,
—Grrrrr'oot . (Cranker.)
Then your melancholy soon will pass away,
Buy a car,
—! ? ! (Siren)
Buy a car,
— (Rattle)
You'll be happy as the little birds in May;
Buy a car,
Buy a car,
And you'll find your sorrows turn to feelings gay,
It will then be "Harry, hello!
You're a jolly fine old fellow,
With a girl for every minute in the day!"

(Beauty Chorus repeat and dance the "Royce Roll")

CURTAIN

Lapse of ten minutes.

Scene: Telephone booth.

Lonesome Lad: 499! Good evening miss, will you connect me with a nice garage? Are there more than one in Shanghai? Really! Well any old one will do. Thank you. Hello. Is that a garage? Oh. I want to buy a car. Yes now. Send a few round on approval. Most of them at the Auto Show? But I want one to go there. Yes. Well, send something snappy. Charge it? Oh, send it round "Chit On Delivery." Good!

CURTAIN

Lapse of two minutes.

Scene: Same as one.

Lonesome Lad enters—he is surrounded by beauty chorus and is telling them:

I'VE BOUGHT A CAR

I've bought a car,
I've bought a car
To pay for it I really don't know how,
And near and far
I'll race that car,
I'm going to be so very happy now,
Who'll share my car? (Omnes: Me, me.)
Who'll share my car? (" " ")
And roam the universe so joyfully?
No longer I'll be lonely
If one of you will only
Just promise now my little wife to be.

Chorus of beauties with one voice

I'll share your car, your home, your purse
I'll share your all
I'll share (Chorus gets out of hand and cry)
I'll share,
oh, no you won't
I will
oh, no you don't

(Here the stage manager lowers curtain leaving the Lonesome Lad surrounded by the whole bevy of damsels—and that comes of buying a car.)

American Woman's Club Notes

The meeting of the Literary Department of the American Woman's Club on Friday had a large attendance, to hear the paper by Mrs. C. H. Robertson and to see Mrs. Wilbur's lantern slides illustrative of Chinese Art.

Mrs. Robertson's paper was upon the "Golden Age of Yao and Shun," that period in Chinese legendary history when people were so honest that doors were never locked, and a purse could be dropped by the roadside, and would be unmolested by the passersby—which all will agree must have been a golden age.

The benefits conferred upon the early Chinese nation, by the good example and far sighted sagacity of these two frugal and sincere rulers, were dwelt upon on the excellent paper.

Mrs. W. F. Beaman, who expected to read a second paper upon the preservation of ancient records, was unable to be present on account of illness. Mrs. H. A. Wilbur substituted a series of lantern slides on Chinese art, which she is preparing for use in America. She began with the early sculptures in relief and in the round, which survive in various localities, from the Han and Tang periods; with a few stone carvings which may be seen in the immediate proximity of Shanghai.

Antique bronzes and potteries, photographed from the collection of Mr. Iwan Dolgorouckoff, followed, and a miscellaneous display of word carvings. In architecture pictures of pagodas, bridges and buildings in Hangchow, Soochow and Peking were shown, which comprised the Forbidden City, the Summer palaces, and the Altar and Temple of Heaven, with various details.

About twenty slides from porcelains in the collections of Mr. and Mrs. Bulow-Ravens, and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Abraham concluded the review. From the first collection were Blanc de Chine in its various manifestations, Sung celadon, Kang Hsi blue and white, and one splendid coral-red vase. The blue and white included the celebrated "Moonshine Vase." From the Abraham collection were a variety of Sung porcelains, one "sky-blue-after-rain," and one magnificent iridescent Han pottery canteen. Two slides of Chow and Han bronzes from this collection were also shown. Much credit for the beauty of the porcelain-slides is due to the fine artistic color-work upon them executed by Miss Lucile Douglass.

Mrs. Wilbur's running commentary was made with special reference to newcomers in China, to direct their attention to places where the elusive Chinese art is discoverable, and elicited considerable information from members of the audience—a pleasant informal feature of the meeting.

Attention was called to the fact that the next meeting of the department, in December, will precede the next general club meeting.

Your Health Comes First

Good Health is your most valuable asset;—its preservation should, therefore, receive your most careful consideration. An important point which should always be borne in mind is the fact that a great many forms of ill-health can be traced, directly or indirectly, to disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is wise, therefore, to keep these organs in healthy activity. When they show any signs of derangement let that reliable medicine, Beecham's Pills, be taken at once. Always deal with digestive ailments in time. They are far-reaching in their possibilities of mischief if neglected, as they too often are. And yet it is generally easy to keep fit and well and free from many debilitating ailments by the simple use of

College And School Notes

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

A two minutes' silence was observed by the faculty and students of the University at 11 a.m. November 11 in the Alumni Hall in Commemoration of Armistice day and was followed by a short prayer.

The final inter-class debate in English, between the Juniors and Sophoniores, took place on Friday evening, November 11, in the Alumni Hall. The subject was: Resolved, that China should adopt a federal form of government. The Juniors, who upheld the affirmative, won the contest, the judges being Mr. J. B. Davies, American Consul J. P. Sawyer and Dr. T. K. M. Siao.

Under the auspices of the Abacus Club and Science Club, an instructive and convincing lecture on "Silk Industry" was delivered by Mr. D. E. Dauty, the general manager of the U. S. Testing Company, on Tuesday night, November 15. The lecture was illustrated by moving pictures.

"How the Americans Laid the Foundations of the American Government" was the subject of a lecture given by Dr. W. G. Dutcher, Vice-president of Wesleyan University, Middle Town Connecticut in the Alumni Hall, last Thursday evening. Dr. Dutcher has been in the Far East for some months. He will spend a few days at the University and will deliver a series of lectures dealing with the above-mentioned subject.

The Japanese class started Tuesday, October 31, in Lien's Villa, Zau Ka Doo, the instructor being Mr. J. Nishimura. Lessons will be given twice a week, on Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

The foreign teachers' residences in Zau Fong Garden, the erection of which was started last term has been completed. Two members of the faculty have moved to two new buildings. The Chinese teachers' residences along the Soochow Creek are being built and will be ready for occupation before long.

The University recently purchased a piece of land comprising 13 mow for $9,000.

MING JANG SCHOOL FOR BOYS

The school, on North Szechuen Road, is established by the South Baptist Mission and has 260 boys in the middle school and primary department this year. The accommodation is insufficient and a new building is planned. A sum of Mex $125,000 has been received from the Foreign Mission in America, and this amount will be spent in buying the ground, probably somewhere in the suburbs while the money for the building will be sought in a campaign for funds.

This week will be an Evangelistic week and Rev. C. C. Kiang will preach to the students every night.

Y. W. C. A. SCHOOL

There was a large gathering of delegates from the McTyeire, St. Mary's Eliza Yates, Bridgman Memorial, and the Physical Training School at the Association building on Friday to pray for the success of the World Christian Student Federation Conference, to be held in Peking in the near future. The Rev. K. T. Chung, member of the executive committee of the Conference, led the devotional prayer, and Mr. T. Z. Koo, chairman of the Conference, explained the functions and importance of the Conference to the young Chinese students. One hundred and sixty girls attended the meeting.

The school has a special English class, beside the regular half-day classes, for those preparing to enter colleges. The typewriting and shorthand classes have been discontinued, but will resume as soon as possible.

There will be no charge for tickets.

Guard of Honor: will be supplied by the Portuguese Company.

Orderlies: Commanders of "A" Co., British, American Co., Portuguese Co., Japanese Co., Chinese Co., Italian Co., will detail two orderlies each to report to Captain A. J. Stewart at the Town Hall at 8:45 p.m. to assist the Committee.

No. 240.—Abuse of the telephone. Some members of the Corps do not seem to realise that the reason for closing the Headquarter office in the afternoons is to enable the headquarters staff to get through some of their voluminous work without interruptions, and are frequently ringing up during those hours on trivial matters. This practice must cease, and in future any member ringing up unnecessarily out of office hours will be called upon for an explanation through his Unit Commander.

TEXACO

TEXACO CRATER COMPOUND
The Great Gear Lubricant

Texaco Crater Compound is a special lubricant for heavy gears and wire rope. It preserves gears; shields them from dust and dirt, prevents friction, and eliminates machinery noise. Use "Crater" on all heavy gears working under conditions of extreme pressure. It clings to gear teeth when nothing else will, but is fluid enough to allow free lubrication.

As a preservative for wire rope and chains, Texaco Crater Compound is invaluable. It forms a film of lubricant which protects from the action of weather, chemical fumes and contaminated water.

Wire rope and chains coated with "Crater" will last twice as long.

Gears lubricated with it will work noiselessly and more efficiently.

Education Official Will Resign

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 19.—Mr. Ma Lin-yi, Vice-Minister of education, has not only tendered his letter of resignation for the second time but has left Peking for Tientsin in order to show that he is serious in his attempts to resign and will not concede to the Cabinet's desires that he remain in office.

The Vice-Minister is quoted in the Chinese papers of this morning as saying that he will not return to office until the Ministry of Finance and the Ministry of Communications have complied with certain stipulations that he set forth in his letter of resignation.

The first of his conditions for return is that appropriations be immediately made to cover the July and October expenses of the government schools. In order to insure the future payments of teachers he next demands that the Ministry of Finance deliver to the Ministry of Education documents acknowledging the latter's contention that hereafter $250,000 a month be given directly to the Ministry of Education for the running expenses of the eight government schools in Peking.

In regard to the pay of the minor officials of his department, Mr. Ma insists that the Minister of Finance meet the obligations of the government by paying out at once the two months arrears which are already six months behind.

The Vice-Minister in concluding his demands on the financial administration of the government brings up the question of the relief of Chinese students abroad. The failure of the government to remit to these students their monthly allowances has resulted in financial distress in every country in which Chinese are studying.

The directors of Chinese educational bureaux abroad have been forced to go into hiding to escape the constant demands made upon them by Chinese students which they have been totally unable to meet. Mr. Ma would have the Ministry of Finance consider ways and means of alleviating this situation.

ALL WANT WAGES

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Nov. 19.—The financial bankruptcy of the Ministry of Education characterise reports today from Chinese sources reports which definitely state that officials of this department are now on strike and that teachers of the government schools in Peking are beginning to consider ways and means of obtaining their arrears of salaries more forcible than petitions and memoranda.

The officials are still presenting the rather reasonable demand that the salaries due them for the last three months be paid, and in spite of various official promises and pledges, notably some sort of a promise on the part of Ma Lin-yi, Vice-Minister of Education, no funds are yet forthcoming to the striking officials. That this strike is an actuality is attested by the Chinese, through the fact that up until three o'clock yesterday afternoon no official appeared at the Ministry of Education.

On the part of the teachers of the eight government schools no such stringent measures have yet been taken. These educators are crying aloud for their arrears, October salaries which have not yet been paid, and the directors of the schools are urgently requesting the Ministry of Education to pay these arrears in order to avoid further trouble and more drastic action on the part of the teachers.

At a meeting yesterday of the representatives of these schools the delegate of the National Agricultural College brought up the point of what actions should be taken if at the end of this month the Government had still failed to appropriate the necessary funds for their payments. Unfortunately, or fortunately, there was not a quorum at this meeting so the question was laid on the table to be taken up again in the course of the next few days. In the meantime the implied threat still hangs over the ministry and together with the other departments of the Government, all officials are engaged in the frantic hunt for funds.
